COURTNEY PHILLIPS

Courtney calls Orrville home, where she lives with her husband and son. She is excited for this next season and the opportunity to mentor and build relationships with students. Courtney's own experiences have given her an appreciation for genuine relationships and the importance of making others feel seen, heard, and supported. She loves spending time with family and friends, and sports are a big part of her family's life. Whether they're cheering on her son, watching a football game together, or catching a game in person, you can usually find sports somewhere in the mix. Courtney also enjoys crafting, decorating for the next holiday, good conversation, and finding joy in the little things.
